

Grandma Susie's Old Trailer

Once upon a time back in November or December my maw maw, mommy, Jake and I went to my Grandma Susie's old trailer.

When we went in the trailer we each got a treasure from Grandma Susie's old stuff. I found an old wooden puppy bank and mommy found Grandma Susie's jewelry box.

We found my big brother's old boy scout stuff. I can't wait to be a boy scout. Maybe I can be one next year and wear his Boy Scout uniform.

Mommy let me have some of the jewelry in the box. I loved the jewelry mommy let me have. One of the pieces of jewelry is a pin that is a dragonfly. It has an inch long and an inch wide piece of coal on the tummy. I am going to keep my jewelry for as long as I live in my puppy bank.

Grandma Susie's old trailer had a yucky and musty smell. It had been closed up for a long time. You see I never knew my Grandma Susie. She died when I was just a baby. Going treasure hunting in her old trailer helped me know her better. The End.
